NOTIFICATION

The approval of the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission under sub-section (1) of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952), read with S.O. No. 1162, dated the 4th May, 1960, has been obtained to the following amendments made to the Bye-laws of the Rajdhani Grains and Jaggery Exchange Ltd., Delhi:

In the said Bye-laws:

I. After clause (c) of Bye-law 99, the following new clause as clause (d) shall be added, viz.:—

“(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (a) and (b), the Board may, when maximum and/or minimum prices are fixed for any delivery or deliveries under bye-law 212A decide at its discretion, by atleast two-thirds majority of the directors present and voting to collect margin money at a lower rate or dispense with collection of margin money altogether, provided the Exchange is secured against any rise up to the maximum price fixed and decline upto the minimum price fixed”.

II. After clause (b) of Bye-law 102, the following new clause shall be added as clause (c), viz.:—

“(c)—Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a) above, the Board may when the maximum and/or minimum prices are fixed for any delivery or deliveries under Bye-law 212A, decide at its discretion, by atleast two-thirds majority of the directors present and voting to collect cover money at a lower rate or dispense with collection of cover money altogether, provided the Exchange is secured against any rise upto the maximum price fixed and decline upto the minimum price fixed”.

III. After Bye-law 212, the following new Bye-laws shall be added as Bye-law 212A and 212B, namely—

“212A(a) If, in the opinion of the Board, it is expedient so to do, it may, by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-third of the directors present and voting at a meeting specially convened in this behalf and concurred in by the Forward Markets Commission, prohibit as from such date as the Board may specify, trading in hedge contracts for any delivery or deliveries at a rate or rates above a maximum and/or below a minimum as may be specified for a specified period or until further notice.

(b) The Board may from time to time, in the manner stated in clause (a), determine, extend or reduce the period during which the prohibition imposed under clause (a) above shall be in force. The Board may also from time to time, in the manner stated in clause (a), vary the maximum or minimum rate or rates for the purpose of trading specified under clause (a) above.

(c) The powers specified in clauses (a) and (b) above may be exercised by the Forward Markets Commission, in any case, where in the opinion of the Commission, it is expedient so to do:

“212B(a) If, in the opinion of the Board it is expedient so to do, it may, by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-third of the directors present and voting at a meeting specially convened in this behalf and concurred in by the Forward Markets Commission prohibit, as from such date as the Board may specify, trading in hedge contracts for any delivery or deliveries except for liquidation of a long or short position by sale or purchase of contracts, for a specified period or until further notice.

(b) The Board may, from time to time, in the manner stated in clause (a) determine, extend or reduce the period during which the prohibition imposed under clause (a) above shall be in force.

(c) The powers specified in clauses (a) and (b) above may be exercised by the Forward Markets Commission, in any case, where in the opinion of the Commission, it is expedient so to do”.

In pursuance of the proviso to sub-section (4) of Section 11 of the said Act, the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission, has dispensed with the condition of the previous publication of the above amendments in the interest of the trade.
